Bonnie Matthews

Gouache and Acrylic

Bonnie Matthews has been a freelance artist and illustrator for more than 25 years. Though most of her career has been doing commercial illustration for magazines and children's books, she has sold numerous paintings and commissioned works for people's homes. She paints whimsical brightly colored images of fanciful landscapes with an array of unusual fun animals among other subjects. She's inspired by nature and tries to go snorkeling every year in the tropics. She's originally from the Baltimore/DC area and has lived in Costa Mesa CA since 2013.
