Francesca Agrusa

Acrylic on Canvas and Photography

Francesca Agrusa was born and raised in Italy where she received her Art degrees. After Francesca moved to the United States she participated for 5 years in the Art community of Emeryville (Bay Area) in collective art shows and annual exhibitions held by the city. Her work consists of photography and acrylic painting. Francesca tries to achieve a connection from the past through the present by layering colors with different subjects. Nature is always Francesca's first inspiration.
