Markus Tracy

Mural Painter/ Site Specific Artist

Markus Tracy was born in Tokyo, Japan and raised in Japan, Germany, Holland, and throughout the United States. After completing his undergraduate and graduate degrees in Fine Arts, Tracy emerged as a community artist primarily working on large-scale murals, creative place making, and creative intervention projects; which he has completed throughout the United States. Tracy is also an interdisciplinary artist, national teaching artist, and an award-winning cultural arts programmer; winning the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award in 2010 for New Directions Youth Arts. Tracy has collaborated and consulted with artist teams, schools, state, city and nonprofit arts organizations and correctional facilities throughout the United States. Tracy is a roster teaching artist for the State Art Councils of Nevada, Utah, South Dakota, North Dakota, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, and Arkansas. He is also a roster teaching artist for Segerstrom Center for the Performing Arts in Costa Mesa, United Arts Council of Raleigh and Wake County of North Carolina, Arts Council of Fayetteville/Cumberland County, Lifetime Arts Inc. in New York, Mural Arts Program in Philadelphia, Baltimore Mural Arts Program, and the Urban Arts Commission in Memphis Tennessee.
