Norberto Sandoval Malaver

Oil Painting/Watercolors/ Sculpture

Norberto Sandoval Malaver is painter and sculptor born in Bogota DC, Colombia on May 3rd, 1963. He recently participated in The Midsummer Night's Dreams exhibit at WashParkArt (Cincinnati, OH) where he was honored by Jane Durrell's comments about his artwork "La Pianista" in her coverage for the online art journal AEQAI. His newest oil painting artworks represent his style that he calls, "Transitions". It resumes everything that he believes around art and allows him to create harmonious contrasts of color, to play with light and shadows and is certainly a transition between figures in nature and geometric abstraction.
