Marie Lavallee

Acrylic Paint

Painting was always on Marie Lavallee's bucket list and she is finally pursuing her passion full time! Years ago she studied paint in a Masters academy in Quebec City, where she was raised.

Quebec City is a very rich artistic culture that profoundly influenced her. She also worked in the jewelry industry for years as a designer, in sales and in management. She especially loves painting whimsical dogs and vintage cars that she sees daily walking her husky around her neighborhood.
