Gray Matter Museum of Art

Museum

The Gray Matter Museum of Art is a non-profit, boutique, art museum that supports local artists, and provides a free thinking space for growth and productivity. Supporting what matters, the museum has drawn all sorts of individuals from kids to seniors, small and large creative businesses, an array of talented artists, other nonprofit and charity groups, college and school education events, along with media and bloggers to experience the museum and its evolution. Triggering the gray matter within us all!
