Tracy Taber

Artist/Educator/Advocate

Tracy Taber has been an artist and art advocate both in and out of the classroom for over 20 years. Graduating with a BA degree in painting as well as a Masters in Education, she has worked in the public school system teaching art at both the High School and Elementary levels in both brick/mortar school and online platforms. Mid-career she worked as an Art Director with a nationwide agency working on several accounts with a focus in the auto industry. Art advocacy continues to be a focus as she has served on the Costa Mesa Cultural Arts Committee for several terms and continues to help her city find its stride as the City of the Arts. In addition to developing others, she also continues to develop and pursue her own art. Not one to be limited to one specific medium, but concentrates mainly in painting.
